"GLDI has given me a new perspective. I want to live a successful life for God and to be satisfied with all the things God has given to me. I believe that through GLDI, a new generation of leaders can rise up and change the world for God. I now have a vision for the future and the way God will use me not only as a Christian, but also as a Korean-American to change the world for Christ."

God + You + 40 plus days = Imagine the Possibilities

Danny Kim
UC Berkeley Graduate

"During GLDI I learned that... great leaders are those who serve humbly and draw the best out of others. The greatest leader must be the greatest servant. GLDI doesn't just teach knowledge on leadership. It shows us how to live to become servant leaders. It teaches us how to think, see, and live biblically... and most importantly, how to become followers of Christ."

Make Your Life Count

- GLDI Global Leadership Development Institute

God created this world with a glorious plan and He chooses to use His people, trained and available people, to carry out His redeeming work in this world.

Are you looking to soak up all that God has planned for you? Do you want your life to count for something? Would you like to influence the world for the cause of Christ? Do you desire to attain more knowledge? Would you like to catch God's dream for His people and make it your own? Would you like to make life-long friends that will change the world with you?

What if we told you that investing 0.001% of your life can change 99.999% of your life?

This world needs godly, creative leaders who will meet the unprecedented challenges this world faces and help make this world a better place for the glory of God. We invite you to step up to that challenge.

- GLDI: 40 plus days of intense, holistic training to develop Spirit-filled, competent, powerful and transforming ambassadors for changing the nation and the world for Christ.

"These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him... men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do—200 chiefs."-I Chronicles 12:23, 32

Chae-Ri Han
University of Rochester

"I learned that leadership means ownership, which means taking initiative. Too often, the rest of my generation and I have been guilty of being passive, waiting for others to make the first move. Yet if God has called His children to be leaders, then we must rise and live like owners of our country."

"Through GLDI God connected me with others who strive to keep holy standards, like Daniel and his three friends. During our 40 days together my friends and I were able to encourage and sharpen each other to become more like Christ. I am looking forward to how God will use us as his servant leaders in the future."

"GLDI is focused on teaching us the truth about Jesus, and opening our eyes to the larger community around us. Do not misunderstand me when I say GLDI is teaching the truth. I have been challenged to reconsider everything I have taken for granted about Christianity, both as a way of life and a social institution. GLDI is breaking the indoctrination I have received from the secular world and all its assumptions about Christianity that I had not taken seriously in the past. In this manner, I am learning the truth."

"GLDI has truly been the most challenging and eye-opening journey of my life. It was a time when my weaknesses were exposed, my core beliefs shaken, my knowledge and scope of life broadened, and a time where I was able to network with brilliant leaders, staff and potential global leaders of our generation. My valuable experience at GLDI was incomparable to any prestigious internship or luxurious vacation I could ever go on."
